Join Badminton Scotland and Help Grow the Sport Across Central Scotland

Are you passionate about community sport? Do you enjoy bringing people together, building partnerships and creating opportunities that have a lasting impact?

As the national governing body for badminton across the country, Badminton Scotland is committed to growing participation and creating opportunities for people of all ages and abilities to enjoy our sport.

We are looking for an enthusiastic, committed and motivated Area Coordinator to lead the development of badminton across the Central Region of Scotland. Working as part of our national Development Team, you'll play a key role in delivering our development strategy by building partnerships, growing participation and creating sustainable opportunities within local communities and clubs.

This is more than a sports development role. It's an opportunity to inspire communities, strengthen local networks and make a lasting contribution to the future of badminton in Scotland.

Why Join Badminton Scotland?

Make a Difference

Help create more opportunities for people across Central Scotland to discover, enjoy and stay involved in badminton through strong local partnerships and sustainable development.

Be Part of a National Team

Work alongside a passionate and supportive team that is committed to growing badminton across Scotland through collaboration, communication, innovation and shared ambition.

Professional Development

Develop your skills while working for an ambitious National Governing Body committed to investing in its people and continuously improving the way we support our communities.

Competitive Package

- £25,000 salary
- 35-hour working week
- Hybrid working
- Workplace pension scheme
- Professional development opportunities
- Flexible working arrangements where appropriate

If you're an enthusiastic relationship-builder who wants to make a genuine difference through sport, we'd love to hear from you.

Join Badminton Scotland and help shape the future of badminton across Central Scotland.
